Kahr Firearms Group Continues to Raise Money for Veterans with Magnum Research "13 Hours Desert Eagles"

(Pillager, MN) - Kahr Firearms Group is proud to continue to raise money for veterans through Magnum Research, Inc and the "13 Hours Desert Eagles" Project.

Less than a year ago, Kahr Firearms Group announced a fundraising collaboration with John "TIG" Tiegen, member of the Benghazi Annex Security team, hero of the Benghazi attack and co-author of the book 13 Hours: The Inside Account of What Really Happened in Benghazi. Together, they developed a project to help support veteran foundations across the country.

The "13 Hours Desert Eagles" Project has raised over $120,000 to date, with 100% of the proceeds donated to these veteran foundations.

In staying with the "13 Hours" theme, the project offers thirteen Special Edition Magnum Research .50AE Desert Eagle pistols featuring the Kryptek Typhon pattern, and engravings of the TIG logo, TIG's signature and the Beyond the Battlefield logo – the foundation TIG and his wife Margaret founded. The pistols are numbered 1 through 13 and have been provided to the following organizations for their fundraising events, each personally chosen by TIG:

"This project has been an honor to be a part of. When the idea first arose for the thirteen guns, I never imagined we would be able to help raise this amount of money, and we are not done yet! There are still three more guns left to raffle or auction this fall," says Jodi DePorter, Director of Marketing at Kahr Firearms Group. "We, of course, must thank Tig and his wife, Margaret, for their unending commitment to helping veterans and working with us on this collaboration. Without them, this would not have been possible."
