Auto -Ordnance® Releases “Victory Girls” Custom 1911

Greeley, PA – Auto-Ordnance is now shipping the special edition World War II themed “Victory Girls” 1911, designed to honor the women whose strength drove industry at home in support of our boys fighting overseas.

The original concept was first shown at the SHOT Show in Las Vegas. Beginning with a base 1911A1 GI Model in .45ACP, it has the standard 5” barrel, seven round magazine, and US property logo wood grips. The Victory Girls model is then customized with deep cut laser engraving of a pin-up girl on the right side, and an updated “Rosie the Riveter” on the left. It also features the USAAC Star Roundel on both sides of the frame. The pistol is then given a worn look with a two color Cerakote finish of Armor Black and Gunmetal Grey.

To purchase, contact your local dealer and have them order part number: 1911BKOWC1. MSRP: $990

Outlaw Ordnance (formerly known as Concealment Commander) based out of West Monroe, Louisiana, worked with Kahr Firearms Group on this custom project, and the previous Magnum Research “We The People” 1911. More joint projects are in the works and will continue to be introduced in coming months. Kahr Firearms Group and Outlaw Ordnance are working closely with @themanspot (Vaughn Neville) and @crispy11b (Omar “Crispy” Avila) on design concepts and promotion of the custom projects. Check them out on their Instagram channels!
